Customer Reviews

My husband ordered this and then became embarrassed when his granddaughter played with his iPad. I never looked at it but I think he enjoyed it. We were able to remove it from our Kindle Library without too much difficulty. But then the purchase turns up again in a request for a review! My advice would be to order the paper version rather than Kindle. It is much less likely to turn up in unexpected locations.

This Letters to Penthouse wasn't as good as others we have read. Some stories, better than others but some were really lame. And there were several misspellings which I find very odd for a national publication. And there were also a few other grammar mistakes.

These short stories were outstanding. They were very sexual and erotic. Each chapter was better than the last one. I would definitely recommend this book.

Its dirty and I like it! Easy to read erotica covering several; areas. I appreciate it doesn't repeat from other volumes.

good book will be getting more over time. love it. great stories.love it on my kindle. great read, worth it he loved it so much it was passes among friends. Enjoyed my man when he was done with his "reading"

Disappointed, frankly the stories are not as well written as other volumes.

helped me keep calm in iraq lol
